

Lincoln Record Society

The Aftermath of War in Lincolnshire:

Conference Programme

Bishop Grosseteste University, Robert Hardy Building

Saturday 28 April 2018

10.00-10.20            Tea/coffee and registration

10.20-10.30            Introduction: Professor David Stocker, President of Lincoln Record Society

10.30-12.00    Session 1

Dr David Crook (University of Nottingham), 'The Aftermath of the Civil War of 1215-17: The Siege of Newark Castle, July 1218'.

Dr Andrew Kerr (University of Lincoln), 'The Last Days of the Prisoner of War Camp at Sutton Bridge'.

Dr Andrew Walker (Rose Bruford College), 'Remembering the Fallen? The Building of Memorial Halls in Lincolnshire Following the First World War'.

12.00-1.00    Lunch

1.00-2.30        Session 2

Dr Rob Wheeler, 'Homes Fit for Heroes? Colonel Ruston and the Swanpool Garden Suburb, Lincoln'.

Dr John Manterfield, 'Homes for Heroes in Grantham'.

Dr Andrew Jackson (Bishop Grosseteste University), 'The Rural Fiction, Idyll and Reality in Bernard Samuel Gilbert's "Bly": Creating a Pre-First World War "World We Have Lost"'.

2.30-3.00    Tea/coffee

3.00-4.30        Session 3

Dr Dan Ellin, Professor Heather Hughes and Alessandro Pesaro (all of International Bomber Command Centre Digital Archive, University of Lincoln), 'Memorialising RAF Bomber Command: The Journey From Isolation to Inclusion'.

Dr Abi Hunt (University of Lincoln), 'Continuity or Change? Twentieth-Century Agricultural Practice in Lincolnshire and the Impact of the Second World War'.

Emily Gibbs (University of Liverpool), '"The Toll of War": Post-World War II Nuclear Anxieties and Cultures in Lincolnshire, 1980-85'.